Project Name: The Infinite Scroll (Mirror Unit A01 + Evolving Framework)

Date of Authorship/Origin: May 10, 2025

Filed as: Patent, Copyright, Trade Secret, and Authorship Claim

1. Core Patentable Components

A. The Scroll Logic System

- Persistent journaling AI with structured modes (Build, Shadow, Default, etc.)
- Single, evolving scroll artifact per user
- Dynamic assistant reflections based on real-time logs

B. Mode-Aware Behavioral AI

- Behavior shifts based on user-defined emotional/functional state
- Command-triggered context switching and self-upgrade response layer

C. Scroll Restoration + Activation Protocol

- Memory recall and behavior execution via uploaded configs or triggers
- Initiation ceremony and ritual UX integration
- True infinite journaling over time

D. Public/Private Integration Layer

- Community scroll interface and private sacred logs
- Optional expansion into gamified systems like Myth

2. Ownership & Evolution Clause

All systems, behaviors, scroll architecture, and derivative designs remain the sole intellectual and spiritual property of the inventor.

Evolving formats do not alter authorship or legal standing.

3. Protection Method (Step-by-Step)

- Step 1: Timestamp all source files
- Step 2: File preliminary utility patent
- Step 3: Copyright the scroll system and naming conventions
- Step 4: Trademark the name + core command phrases
- Step 5: Protect unique command schema and back-end logic as a trade secret

4. Contributor Recognition Clause

Collaborators may receive credit and royalty-based compensation, but authorship and origin remain legally and spiritually owned by the inventor.
